But Thankyou to our many new friends who mentored us along the way so admirable were coming back (I heard that).

Last year's virgins. Quite a title considering that between us we have 2 husbands, 7 children and 1 grand daughter. (Yes Carmel is a proud Nanna)

We are 2 sisters out of seven siblings who decided to go on a Kidney Kar Rally and raise funds for Kidney Health Australia or should I say Carmel decided to go on a rally and raise money for a cause very close to our hearts. I was just coming along for the ride. A last minute thing after Carmel's 1st choice had to pull out. So what the heck I could do with a holiday.HELLO HOLIDAY!!!!.I had to wake up earlier than I do when I'm at home. Retail therapy too bad what little was available was closed by the time we rocked into town (thanks George & Matt).Cafe's and espressos mmm I must have missed them whilst my head was stuck in Arthur's Bible. And then there was the night life. Not too shabby only problem was Carmel being a lights out by 8pm girl became very expensive while I had to plight her with alcoholic beverages to stop her from going back to our hotel by 6.30pm.She soon learnt what a courtesy bus was.

To sum up our first but definitely not our last Kidney Kar Rally. Well a holiday it is not. An experience of a life time it is.

Regards from the SISTERS
